Application for Exemption or Concession from Duty

This form is to be used for agreements for sale or transfers that were entered into on or after 1 July 2004

- NOTE:
- Applicants claiming an exemption or concession from duty may be required, at a later date, to provide evidence to substantiate the exemption or concession claim. A substantial penalty may become payable in the event that the exemption/concession claims are shown to be false
 - Read the First Home Plus factsheet on our website www.osr.nsw.gov.au before completing this form. If you're unable to access the internet, forms and factsheets are also available from all branches of the Office of State Revenue or your legal representative
 - Where a First Home Plus application is approved and a new purchaser is subsequently added or substituted prior to settlement, a new First Home Plus application form will need to be submitted by the additional or substituted purchaser
 - The first two pages of this form are for your information only. Please detach these pages before submitting this application.

Eligibility criteria

To be eligible for First Home Plus:

Definitions

- Australian citizen - An Australian citizen as defined in the Australian Citizens Act 1948 of the Commonwealth
- Completion - An agreement or transfer is completed when a purchaser or transferee becomes entitled to possession of the home and, if the interest acquired is registrable under a law of the State, the purchaser or transferee's interest is registered
- Dutiable value - Is the greater of the consideration (purchase price) for the dutiable transaction and the unencumbered value (determined without regard to any encumbrance) of the dutiable property
- Permanent resident - Means:
(a) the holder of a permanent visa within the meaning of section 30 of the Migration Act 1958 of the Commonwealth, or
(b) a New Zealand citizen who holds a special category visa within the meaning of section 32 of the Migration Act 1958 of the Commonwealth
- Purchaser - Includes a transferee
- Residential property - Land on which there is a building that is lawfully occupied as a place of residence, or suitable for occupation as a place of residence, or a company title dwelling
- Residence requirement - The home must be occupied by the person or persons who are acquiring it as their principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least 6 months, with that occupation starting within 12 months after the completion of the agreement or transfer
In the case of vacant land, the Chief Commissioner must be satisfied the vacant block of land is intended to be the site of a home to be occupied by the person(s) who are acquiring it as their principal place of residence
- Spouse - The person to whom the applicant is married or cohabiting with on a genuine domestic basis or in a relationship of de facto marriage, (including same sex relationships) as defined in the Property (Relationships) Act 1984
NOTE: There is no minimum period of cohabitation, which defines a de facto marriage under the Property (Relationships) Act 1984
- Title reference - The way the land is identified or referred to in the title documents for example folio identifier(s), volume and folios, the lot(s) and deposited or strata plan number, book and number
